IT'S TRUE. ST. MARY'S IS A PART OF THE PAST. HER
COURNERS DONE MARKED 1824 PROVES IT. THE SPRAWLING TREES AND CRAWLING IVY PROVE IT. EVEN AFTER A FACELIFT, THE CREAKING FLOORS OF SMEDES
AND THE WEATHERED BOARDS OF THE CHAPEL PROVE IT.
YET, HER TWENTY-THREE ACRE CAMPUS ON HILLSBOROUGH STREET ISN'T JUST A REMINDER OF HISTORY. HER EIGHTY-FOUR HUNDRED ALUMNAE ARE PROUD OF THE TRADITION OF ST. MARY'S: THEIR DAUGHTERS AND GRANDDAUGHTERS ARE PROUD OF
HER PRESENT AND FUTURE. HER NEW DEAN AND FORTY HUNDRED AND NINETY-FOUR STUDENTS JOIN THE TRADITIONS OF THE PAST TO THOSE OF THE FUTURE. THE VARIOUS CLUBS, SUCH AS THE COLD CUTS, UNDATETTES, SPIDERS, BEACON AND CIRCLE, PASS THE TRADITION ON TO EACH NEW ST. MARY'S GIRL. ST.
MARY'S ISN'T JUST A THING OF THE PAST: SHE IS THE PRESENT AND SHE WILL BE PART OF THE FUTURE.

Administration/Staff

President

John T. Rice
President

Mr. John T. Rice, President of St. Mary's College, has been with St. Mary's since 1976. As President he is involved in all areas of the St. Mary's Community. Mr. Rice and his family have been a tremendous help in making St. Mary's an outstanding school.

President Rice has two daughters attending St. Mary's; Sarah, who is a Senior, and Anne, who is a Freshman.

School Leaders

"Friday night? Sure, I'm free!" Jean Schaefer "solicits" for St. Mary's at the annual alumni telethon.

Day Student Officers 1st row: Anne Gaddy, Secretary-Treasurer; Britt Vice, President; 2nd row: Cary Hardin and Angel Archer, representatives.

The student government of St. Mary's consists of the Student Government Association, the Legislative Body, the Day Student Officers, Judicial Board, Dorm Council and Hall Council. Each member is selected by her fellow students. Together they symbolize school unity and spirit and uphold the disciplinary standards. The student governing bodies are the central core for St. Mary's beliefs and goals.

Helping with school functions

Too much excitement at Phonathon; Donna Spurrier helps a delirious SGA president to her seat.

The blackboard voices its opinion at a Day-Student meeting.

Serving St. Mary's

Sergeant at Arms Laura Edwards, Assembly Chairman, maintains order in assembly.

Smokey the Bear, Fire Marshall, Gigi Wallace, keeps SMC prepared for emergencies.

The Tour Guides

Chapel Functions

The chapel organizations maintain the altar utensils and keep the services running smoothly. Each year girls are trained to lay read, serve communion and to perform other chapel duties. The vestry under the chairmanship of Mary Doris Dial oversees all of these operations.

The Vestry

Projects Committee

Mary Doris Dial, Vestry head, chairs such operations as lay reading.

Taking Care of Business

Acolyte Kristie Farlow extinguishes the candles.

The various chapel organizations give St. Mary's students a chance to participate in all facets of an Episcopal worship service. While some girls work during the actual service, others prefer the behind-the-scenes preparation groups such as the Altar Guild. There are even girls who work in several groups. Hard-work and/or practice are required of every participant, but the girls in turn get something as well: a chance to serve the Lord in a different way.

Superior Performance

Four honorary organizations on campus are reserved for those students who excel in the following areas: drama, French and academic work. The respective organizations are the Order of St. Genesis, the Societe Honoraire de Francais, and the two campus honor societies: Phi Theta Kappa for college students and the High School Honor Society for high school students. Each group has certain entrance requirements, but above all, determination, self-discipline, and scholarship are tell-tale characteristics of members.

Performing Arts

"Overture! Hit the lights! This is it, we've hit the heights. . . ."

When it comes to Fine Arts, SMC has, literally, everything. The department, thanks to the work of some very dedicated advisors and instructors, is known all over the state. The various groups have been invited to perform all over, including performances at local elementary schools, and a Bishops conference. Spreading joy throughout the community as well as at SMC has proven very beneficial for these "stage struck" girls.

A very respected organization at St. Mary's, the Order of the Circle, endeavors to distinguish outstanding students in the college department. Members include those girls who strive to use their influence to enact school spirit and good relations between students and faculty. Established in 1938, the Circle is a secret society, holding its ceremonies and meetings in absolute secrecy. There are many traditions connected with the Circle: The light blue ring worn underneath the St. Mary's ring, the circle stone outside of Holt, the sale of mugs, and the midnight walks behind the guiding light of the torch. The walks are ended in front of Smedes by completing a circle thus symbolizing their name. As the Circle is symbolic of unity, through her character, individuality, dependability, and fellowship to bring together and unify every branch at St. Marys.

School Spirit

Spiders Cary Hardin; Perry Vann, President; Allison Srock; Stephanie Burch; Katie Seawell, Madame Spider.

With every regret, we can't tell you yet. Undatettes Rena Harris and Louise Marlowe, President, pose for a shot.

The Beacon is an honorary organization composed of members in the high school. Membership is based on participation in extracurricular activities, scholarship, character, leadership, and their genuine love for St. Mary's.

The Beacon Mr. Dillard, Advisor; Gray Fagan, Secretary; Anne Cobb, President; Charlotte Hill, Treasurer.

Diversities on Campus

The Foreign Language Club

The German Club Danielle Schaefer, Katie Seawell, Bambi Conger, Anne Latham

St. Mary's has clubs to suit all personalities and situations. The language clubs, for example, give students an extracurricular taste of culture, cuisine, lectures. Festivals enable students to have a beyond-the-classroom experience of other worlds.

Publications

At St. Mary's, a student is certain to find some organization which can use her abilities; the "floating talent" doesn't have to look very far. For example, for students with particular interest in writing, St. Mary's has a school newspaper, The Belles, and a creative writing magazine The Muse. Serving on the staffs, girls not only practice writing, but they get some first hand experience at the work required in publishing a paper. The Belles keeps students informed on campus events while The Muse highlights insight and retrospect through creative expression. The Muse also invites various authors to speak on campus for a special "Muse Week".

Belles Editor, Marion Moorman, prepares an issue for the press.

Stagecoach

The Stagecoach is the yearbook of St. Mary's College. It is a publication which is done by the students with the help and encouragement of their advisor. It contains photographs and original writings by the students. The main purpose of the book is to portray the life of St. Mary's girls.

Athletic Achievers

Sports are a main attraction on St. Mary's campus and it gives girls a chance to excel. Recently, soccer has been added to St. Mary's athletic program which enables girls to participate in more sports. Many girls show outstanding ability in this and other sports and are awarded Letters for their participation.

Campus Life

Wolfe Fest 1981

The seventh annual Thomas Wolfe Fest was held October 24 and 25, 1982 in the Kenan Library. Sponsored and produced by the library staff and the library committee, it drew audience and speakers from throughout the United States as well as the St. Mary's campus and Research Triangle area. The Thomas Wolfe Society, an international organization, met in conjunction with the Fest.

Featured speakers included Dr. Edmund Fuller; Dr. Richard S. Kennedy of Temple University; Dr. Suzanne Stutman of Penn State; Dr. Leslie Field of Purdue University; Dr. Donald Stowell of Florida State; Dr. Elizabeth Evans of Georgia Tech; Suzanne Britt Jordan; and Carole Klein. Adding variety to the schedule of addresses and panel discussions was a genuine, down East pig pickin'.

Many speakers used audiovisual presentations to emphasize their talks. The audience enjoyed Dr. Stowell's slides of theatre costumes designed by Thomas Wolfe's patron, Aline Bernstein and Dr. Kennedy's slides of paintings by the Old Masters used by Wolfe in his books. Mark Dearmon's "Search for the Angel" was a multimedia presentation that highlighted the autobiographical themes in Look Homeward, Angel. In addition, "Thomas Wolfe: An American Odyssey," a CBS Camera Three production color videotape was available for viewing before and after the regular sessions of the Fest.

The Thomas Wolfe Collection was founded in 1975 by Dr. and Mrs. John O. Fulenwider, Jr. of Pageland, SC, whose personal collection forms its nucleus. One of the major Wolfe Collections in the United States, its holdings include the George McCoy papers, the Edgar E. Wolfe papers and the Richard Walser papers.

During the Saturday afternoon panel discussion "The Creative Relationship: Editor and Author," Carole Klein made a point about her book Aline.

The Board of Directors of The Thomas Wolfe Society met for a long planning session during the Fest: (left to right) Dr. John Idol; Bobbie Purser; Dr. Richard Kennedy; Dr. Morton Teicher; Dr. H. G. Jones; Dr. Leslie Field; Head Librarian, Andrea P. Brown; and Dr. John S. Phillipson.

Country western singer, Walt Treesh entertained with "Oh Lord, It's Hard to Be Humble" during the pig pickin'.

The St. Mary's Ensemble presented songs popular during the years Wolfe grew up in Asheville. Soloist Frances Ellerbe sang "The Lost Chord."

Mercedes McCambridge is a highly acclaimed actress who has held many distinguished roles on stage and radio, in motion pictures and television. Described by Orson Wells as the "world's greatest living radio actress," she dubbed in the Devil's voice in the movie, The Exorcist, without the use of technical sound effects. She has appeared in dozens of films, including Giant, Farewell to Arms, and All the King's Men, for which she won an Academy Award. Her lecture, "Courage and Chemicals," is an intensely dramatic and personal saga of courage in the face of alcoholism.

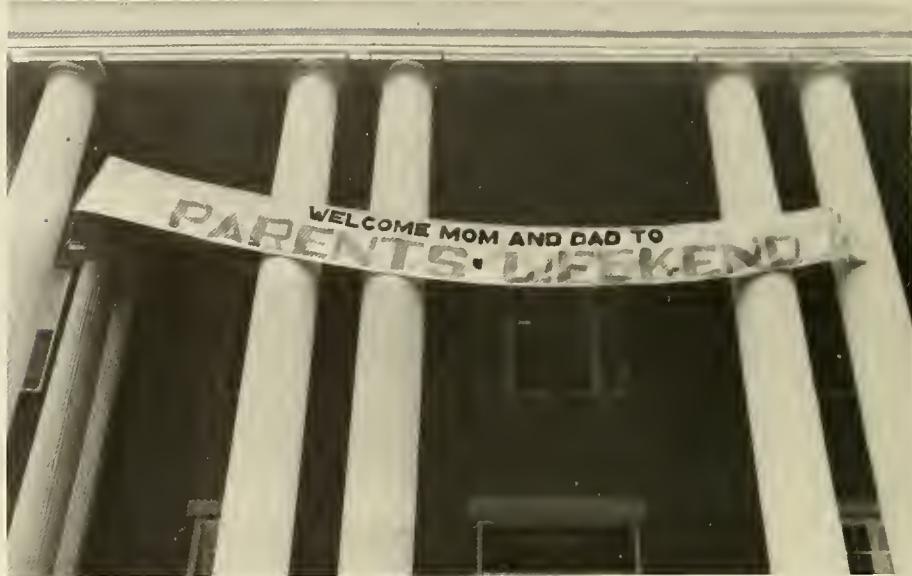

Suzanne Britt Jordan is a columnist and free-lance writer whose articles and essays have been published or reprinted in Newsweek, Reader's Digest, the New York Times, and many other major newspapers around the country. A former instructor of English at N.C. State, she also co-authored The Complete Guide to Basic Grammar. Her current weekly column in the Raleigh News and Observer combines wit and wisdom in a colorful style which has won her a large audience of faithful readers.

Frances Bland and Fanny Pou were speakers during Alcohol Awareness Week.

Parents Weekend

Parents Weekend of 1981 took place on October 30th and 31st. The two days were full of events such as class visitation, dance performances, receptions, and meetings. As always, the weekend was a great success, providing a chance for parents to become better acquainted with the school and a reunion with their daughters.
